

Bronc-Oliney High Game Put Off By Wintry Weather

Bad weather that covered highways and roads with sleet caused officials today to postpone the Denton High-Oliney basketball game originally set for tonight.

Coach Dan McAllister talked with the Oliney High mentor by telephone today and the mentors agreed the tilt should be re-set.

If a date suitable to both teams can be found during February, the match will be played then, the coaches agreed. If not, Oliney will come to Denton next season.

Postponing the match leaves one more engagement on the Broncs' January schedule: their date here Jan. 27 with Wichita Falls High.

Songs, Oration for Lions Club

Songs and an oration made up the program for the Lions Club Thursday night. R. L. Cooper, evangelist singer formerly living in Denton and now visiting here, sang a number of negro songs and gave a negro "sermon" on "Punishment." Hygiene.

Jack Robbins, student in the high school here, gave an oration which won for him first honors in a tri-state contest while living in Missouri. His subject was "Let's Advise War."

V. W. Shepard and V. Y. Craig were the program committee.

Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the great singer, was 75 years old when she died recently.

BIBLE TAKES UNIVERSITY JOB

AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Dana X. Bible, abdicating monarch of Big Six football, faced a new challenge today — rebuilding the crumbled gridiron glory of the University of Texas.

A 10-year contract with the veteran mentor, whose Nebraska teams have been almost perennial champions, was approved by the Longhorn board of regents after a two-day conference. His salary, though unannounced, unofficially was said to be $15,000—$7,000 more than the University president gets.

Bible boarded a train to return to Lincoln after declaring he would present his formal resignation to University of Nebraska officials—probably Saturday—before signing a Texas contract. He said he expected to return shortly to organize his staff and prepare for spring training.

The genial mentor, whose Cornhusker teams won six Big Six conference titles in eight years, will return to familiar territory. From 1917 to 1928 inclusive, except for 1918 when he was overseas with the U. S. Air Corps, Bible coached at Texas A. & M. College. The Aggies annexed five Southwest Conference championships under him.

Grid followers of the state university, arch-rivals of Texas A. & M., thus can expect a change of grid-fair with Bible's combined short punt, single and double wing-back formations, featuring a deceptive power rather than overhead attack, replacing the modified Notre Dame system of Jack Chevigny, who retired at the close of the season. The Longhorns finished in the conference cellar the past two years.

Employment of Bible caused rejoicing among the student-body and alumni of the university.

President H. Y. Benedict of the university, who had stated he opposed paying coaches salaries in excess of administrators and professors, approved Bible, saying "assuredly I shall give him my fullest co-operation."

Details Secret

Bible commented as follows: "We have had a fine conference. The conditions presented and in which all groups are in accord are most satisfactory." He said he would request a meeting with Chancellor Burnett at the athletic board of the Nebraska school Saturday.

Delay in agreement between Bible and regents was attributed to Bible's unusually high salary and long-term contract demands. It was believed the regents finally met his terms although some thought there was a compromise. All details remained cloistered in strictest secrecy. A definite salary figure probably will be announced after Bible resigns formally at Nebraska.

Bible's contacts with Eastern and mid-Eastern grid powers gave rise to speculation whether efforts might be made to fill the open date of Dec. 4 on the Longhorn schedule with one of those teams.

Coaches Pleased

DALLAS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Southwest Conference coaches joined today in hailing the return of Coach Dana X. Bible to the loop as adding new prestige to the conference but offering stiffer competition for the other members.

Coach Matty Bell of Southern Methodist said Bible "stands for everything fine in the game."

"His acceptance of the Texas job is a compliment to the conference," Bell added. "I'm glad he's back but his teams probably will make it tough on the rest of us."

Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian said:

"I think the conference is very fortunate to get Bible back, though he may be a little rough on us in the matter of wins and losses."

Coach Jimmy Kitts at Rice said he was "extremely pleased."

"It is one of the best things that could happen to the conference," he said.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

As a worker he's hard to touch.

He posts signs all around his office: "Run, don't trot."

"The team that wins is the team with the finish." He's always pointing these out to his men.

This recent move suggests a new sign for coaches: "Never accept a five year contract if you can get one for 10."

Add shrewd moves: Billy Jurges, Cubs' shortstop, lives in Brooklyn.

Bible decided recently to buy a house over there. Only trouble was he couldn't very well commute between Brooklyn and Chicago in the summer. So he went to "Bolly" Grimes, the new Brooklyn manager, and made him an offer to rent the house in summer.

"Bolly," who naturally isn't very sure of settling down for good in Brooklyn, accepted.

He says he walked up to the front door at St. Andrews and was stopped.

"Then, says Leo, he protested violently, and so did the Prince.

Finally he was allowed to go in.

The English press took up the incident and it did much to break down the discrimination.

Half of Dean Brothers Signs

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—One-half of the Dean brothers act was in the fold today and Branch Riekey was talking a 1937 National League pennant for his St. Louis Cardinals.

The dynamic vice president and general manager of the Redbird system took just three minutes of Paul (Daffy) Dean's time yesterday to get his name on a contract.

He admitted, however, there was no time limit on the signing of brother Jerome (Dizzy) Dean, in the throes of his annual holdout act.

Paul, reinstated yesterday after voluntarily retiring from baseball during the 1936 season because of a lame throwing arm, blew into Riekey's hotel suite ready to negotiate. He admitted he was in a hurry to hotfoot back to the hospital and see his 48-hour-old son—Paul Jerome Dean, nine pounds, one ounce of prospective pitcher.

Riekey was stumped on the "Dizzy" Dean case.

Three weeks ago Dizzy wanted $100,000. Ten days after he had low-

Dodgers to Pay Van Mungo More

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers apparently have seen in the papers that their ace pitcher, Van Mungo, insists on a pay increase this year. At any rate, the club announced today the big right hander's 1937 contract will call for a salary higher than he received a year ago.

Whether the terms have been boosted to meet the $1,500 or $2,500 increase Mungo was reported seeking is not known. The Dodgers said "many payers received increases" in the club's contracts, mailed out today and Mungo was one of them.

The temperamental fireballer was supposed to have received $12,500 in 1936.

If you don't think Trader Horns came out on top in that three for three deal with Indians, the record books may change your mind.

Horns gets Joe Vosmik, who has shown plenty of class in his seven years in the big time, and the records show he has a poor season every third year, which may explain that 1936 performance. Also, he was head and shoulders over Jule Solters in fielding. In Billy Knickerbocker, Horns gets a 25-year-old shortstop, compared to the aging Lynn Lary at 31. And if the Rajah can't take Billy in hand and improve his defensive work, then he's been slipping lately.

Tagging the bases: Ole Fox Clark Griffith is plenty burned up over Pitcher Buck Newsom's request to be traded by the Senators. Griffith says he'll hang onto Buck now.

But a top-flight catcher, like the Browns' Rollie Hemerys or the Indians' Frankie Pytlak, may make him change his mind.

Football Game of All Nations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(AP)—In America the national sport is baseball; the world over it's football.

The game is played in almost every nation. Countries may have other sports peculiar to their own section, but virtually all have soccer.

Soccer is played in the United States, too, but has been edged into the background by American football. The American style game is played in only a few other nations and hasn't the popular general appeal of soccer.

Some nations have college, club and county teams and many also have professional soccer clubs.

There are regional and national championships in the various countries. Italy won the soccer championship in the 1936 Olympic games.

In most other countries, the admission price to such games is much smaller than is charged to American college contests. The attendance ranges from 10,000 to 20,000 for major county games to 100,000 and more for national and international championship competitions.

Christian Council Meeting at Church

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church, meeting in the church Tuesday, was opened with a devotional offered by Mrs. J. Edwin Taylor and prayer by Mrs. Clem Pierce. The banks, which are turned in quarterly by members, were opened, resulting with Mrs. G. A. Reeves' circle having the largest attendance and offering, and Mrs. Reeves was presented with a small remembrance. Eighteen members were present.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

"Old Hickory"

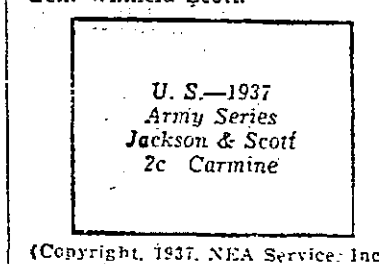

ANDREW JACKSON made his men fear and worship him. So tough was he that they called him "Old Hickory." Swiftly and mercilessly he had conquered the Creek Indians in Georgia and Alabama. Then, in 1814, he became commander of the defending American army at New Orleans.

Jackson had fewer than 8,000 men. Attacking him were 20,000 trained British soldiers and a large naval squadron. Jackson entrenched himself behind strong fortification in the swamp land outside New Orleans. The British were routed, their general killed, 2,000 of their forces were slain. Jackson lost only 71 men.

That victory at New Orleans, and Jackson's later campaigns in Florida against the Seminole Indians, won him such popularity that he was elected president in 1828. He retired in 1837, and died in 1845, at the age of 78.

The new two-cent army stamp portrays the general, alongside Gen. Winfield Scott.

Germany to Be Fully Federalized

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The forthcoming session of the Reichstag has been called. It was learned today to hear two cabinet decrees initiating the change of Germany into a fully federalized state.

A high official of Chancellor Hitler's official family said the Reichstag would be used as a platform from which to announce the decrees to be passed by the cabinet shortly before the session.

The laws, he said, were merely preliminary to a comprehensive re-arrangement of Germany which will be announced four years hence. At that time—conceding roughly with the end of the four year plan to make Germany economically self-sufficient—the old state lines will disappear completely and the country will be reorganized by "gaus" or districts based on similarity of customs, dialect, origin, etc.

After the comprehensive unification of Germany, the Nazi spokesman said, Air Minister, Hermann Goering, Dr. Fuehrer's chief aide, will automatically become Reich chancellor or minister-president.

Reports have been current for some months Hitler was planning to turn over the political direction of the Reich to Goering, retaining only his position as Fuehrer, or "leader" of the German people.

An annual lecture has been instituted by the royal society and the department of scientific and industrial research, England, to honor the memory of Sir Charles Parsons, inventor of the compound steam turbine.
