HORNSBY OUTSMARTED INDIANS IN SWAP IN WRITER'S OPINION

Van Mungo Tendered Pay Increase by Dodgers' Front Office.

By SID FEDER
New York, Jan. 22 — (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers announced today Van Mungo, their ace hurler, receives a salary increase this year.

Whether the terms have been boosted to meet the $1,500 or $2,500 increase Mungo was reported seeking is not known.

The temperamental fireballer was supposed to have received $12,500 in 1936.

Contracts for the veteran Heinie Manush and the 1936, American Association slugger, Jack Winsett, already are in the Dodgers' office safe.

Trader Hornsby came out on top in that three-for-three deal with the Indians.

Hornsby gets Joe Vosmik, who has shown plenty of class in his seven years in the big time. And the records show he has a poor season every third year, which may explain that 1936 performance.

Joe Fox Clark Griffith is plenty burned up over Pletcher Buck Newson's request to be traded by the Senators. . . . Griff says he'll hang onto Buck now. . . .

END DUCKPIN ROUND TODAY

Match Tonight Will Settle First-Round Championship Issue.

The initial round of the spirited Record-Argus duckpin league chase comes to an end this evening at the Majestic alleys, pitting Team 9 against Team 8 with the matter of leadership still unsettled.

James Brown's squad, No. 9, can finish atop the heap by taking the match in straight games, and by winning two of the three can deadlock Frank Baslin's team for the ranking berth.

Yesterday evening's scheduled match, between Teams 2 and 13, did not materialize when the Perkinsmen were unable to present a lineup.

BEING BRIEF

A big question now when close followers of the county's Class A basketball circuit hash over the early season developments has to do with Sharpville's ability or inability to keep atop the heap.

Arthur R. Stewart, faculty manager of athletics at Penn High, is still seeking an additional opponent to round out the 1937 football schedule.

Joe Louis of bistic fame weighed 14 pounds at birth. . . . Penn High officials expected to reach a decision today on whether to transfer the game with Sharon next Tuesday to the Thiel College gymnasium.

Booster Club passers, in a sudden huff over what they alleged was biased officiating, walked off the M. E. court two minutes before their game with Barney Drugs was to have ended last night.
