3. Please use discretion when entering. It is requested to only enter 5 per marked rat category (advised to do the same with the other classes).

Please fill in the name or number and what information you do know about the animal on the entry blank ahead of time or we will not be able to accept the entry.
5. The Rat and Mouse Show Boxes may be rented at the show by the exhibitors ($2 ea. for the day). Please rent enough boxes for your largest class entered, i.e. Rats – 2 Sells, 4 AOC, 3 Marked, you will need 4 boxes since all 4 AOC's will be on the table at once; Mice – 3 Satins, 5 LHS, 1 Pet, you will need 5 boxes. Update: Rent 1 box per animal as all classes will be called at once. Note: for Pet Classes only, exhibitors may provide their own Kriiter Keepers (or equivalent brand/size) (lg. for rats, medium for mice) for the show box. (Effective March 7, 2015)

6. Please label your cages with what you have inside so anyone looking can see what different colors of fancy rats and mice there are! You might want to also put your name on them.
7. Please check-in at the Show Secretary table upon arrival to the show to pick up your judging slips, get your sales stickers (one per cage of animals or one per group of items), get any questions answered about your entries, get show boxes, get your animals health checked, etc.
8. Health Check: ALL animals (show or otherwise) will be health checked and approved by an AFRMA representative. This is for the health and safety of ALL the animals at the show. If any illness or problem is found that would normally take the animal off the show table, i.e. respiratory, scabs, etc., we will require that the entire cage be set aside (wire divided cages to be considered as one cage; solid partition cages to count as individual cages) and none can be shown or sold out of that cage. Update: Animals are to be brought in individual solid-sided carriers. Cages that do not pass the health check will be put behind the AFRMA sales table until the end of the show. Colored dots will be used denoting whether the cage passed or didn't pass. (Yellow is OK, blue not OK).
9. We will try and announce each class ahead of time, but it is each exhibitor's responsibility to be aware of their exhibitor number, what is being judged, and to see that their animals get on the table when required. Any animals not to be shown, please let the steward know so you aren't holding up the judging. Judging Order sheets posted at each show.

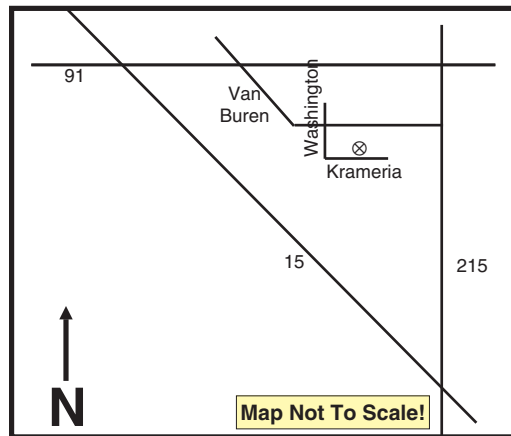

Please don't take animals off the table while they are being judged unless you request to do so to the clerk or the judge asks that the animal be removed, because of temperament or show condition. You will forfeit any awards that animal would have won.

Substitutions are to be done by the exhibitor the morning of the show. Take the show box stub and put a large "S" on the back and write the correct name/number on the front; mark the judging card with the correct information.

RESCUE ANIMALS

There will be a maximum of 2 animals per show, per seller allowed, except for those recognized by AFRMA as warranted rat and mouse recyclers, with a minimum of a $5 adoption fee per animal for mice/hamsters, and a minimum $10 adoption fee per animal for rats. Rescue animals must pass all above criteria.

SELLING PERMITS

Members will be responsible for selling their own animals or other items on the Sales Table at the shows. You will be required to buy a Sales Permit (sticker) at a flat rate of $10 per person. You must be signed up to sell and paid for by the show deadline. We also have Yearly Sales Permits for $30 per year starting from the time of purchase. Space is provided on the Entry Blank. A permit must be purchased for pre-sold delivered animals. You will receive stickers for each cage of sale animals and for each group of other items. See the Show Secretary upon arriving at the show. All other rules about selling will apply (e.g. you are the owner, health checking, minimum of 6 weeks of age rats/5 weeks mice, hand out brochure with each animal sold with your name and phone number, etc.). If you are just selling animals, you will still check in with the Show Secretary and sign an Entry Blank showing you were there after getting your animals health checked. E-mail/bring a pedigree or birth certificate for your sales animals!
