

Contributed by Jeff Schlimmer,
Irvine, CA

This puzzle is a combination cross-word and anagram. There are 2 parts to its solution. First, complete the top sentence by writing in the correct words enclosed by the box. There are clues to help you. Then rearrange the letters to spell out the saying below the box. Enjoy!

A mouse who is bashful to be borrowed is:

Tending to avoid people, timid:

Went _ _ the AFRMA show:

Added to "come" means to transform:

The 40 days before Easter:

Club motto:

